By LOUIS A. DOUGHER.

After seething below the surface for several months, the tempest in the baseball teapot has burst forth with a loud bang. John K. Tener, president of the National League, has thrown down the gage of battle to Ban Johnson. He has announced his severance of all relations with the National Commission whenever the American League is involved. He charges the Philadelphia Athletics with making a breach of the socalled national agreement,

As an indication of the American League's attitude, Ban Johnson is quoted from Chicago as saying, "The contemplated resignation of Gov- Sisler, 1b. ernor Tener from the presidency of the National League occasions me no surprise. From advices I have received from several sources the course he has taken is absolutely necessary for the welfare of baseball, Austin, ss. in view of the fact that he devoted so little attention to the affairs of the
